Tickets for the funny tragedy, "Very Good Eddie," are on sale at the Court Pharmacy.

Have you tried that Jontee Cold Cream yet? It is a wonder, and sold in Ocala only at Gerig's Drug Store.

The county judge has issued marriage license to James Fanning Henson and Miss Belle Eva Freyermuth.

Mr. H. H. Hutchinson of Atlanta, southern manager for the American Surety Co., has been in town, calling on Mr. D. W. Davis.

A full assortment of the famous PAKRO Seedtape. Just the thing for the small fall garden. Ocala Seed Store.

Mr. W. L. Schmidt of Atlanta, spent yesterday in the city, in the interests of the Paramount Film Co. Mr. Schmidt left this morning for South Florida.

It was reported here this morning that Roosevelt was dead, and if you thought that person was a back number you would have changed your mind on hearing inquiries rain in on the Star.

Silver mounted Knitting Needles at THE BOOK SHOP.

Mr. G. S. Wilson, night clerk at the Harrington, intends to go to see "Very Good Eddie," at the Temple Monday night. He says he wants to see how another really, truly hotel clerk acts.

A good many of our people are much worried over the report that Robert F. Gray of Gainesville was on the sunken Tuscania. "Bob" Gray was a frequent visitor to Ocala and has many friends here.

Mr. Edward Maynard, who belongs to the naval reserve, has been called, and will leave Monday. He will begin his service as a third class electrician in the radio branch. Edward is a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Maynard.

When you want accurate and prompt prescription service, send your prescriptions to Gerig's Drug Store.

In the basket ball game yesterday afternoon, Ocala lost to Inverness by a score of 28 to 27. It was a good game and the Ocala boys gained field in the second half. If there could have been a third half they would have won.

The fire at 12:30 today was a slight blaze at the home of Mr. J. P. Galloway. It was immediately extinguished by the next door neighbor, Mr. A. A. Winer, who has a little fire department of his own. Damage, about $5.

Otis Gaskin of Shady Grove was knocked down and run over, early this afternoon, by an auto driven by Eugene Melson of Spencer's garage. The accident took place on North Magnolia street near the Baptist church. Mr. Gaskin stepped out from behind a truck in front of the auto, and when Mr. Melson tried to dodge he became confused and ran in front of the moving car instead of going the other way. Mr. Gaskin was promptly taken into a physician's office and attended to. He was badly bruised and shaken up but not seriously hurt.

AMERICANS ON A CANDY ORGY

Experiences of Young Men at an Aviation Camp in Southern Italy

American Aviation Camp, Southern Italy.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The food problem recently attained the dignity of a crisis here. When the United States government arranged for the training of Americans here, it was agreed that five lire per day should be paid for the feeding of each aviation officer in the making, a sum amply equal to advanced food prices, considering the several hundreds of men to be fed. A contract to feed the men was let to a local restaurant proprietor but he became imbued with the idea that Americans have plenty of money and are anxious to spend it. For many weeks the Americans, absorbed in their training, accepted the food given them. They merely went down into their own pockets and patronized the candy stores of the city, its restaurants, but particularly the canteen where the Italian soldiers of the camp spent their money for drinks, sandwiches and omelets.

Gradually the price of canteen products rose so high the Italian soldiers were unable to patronize it and complained to their officers. These latter investigated jointly with the American officers, with the result that canteen prices were reduced 150 per cent and the contractor in charge of the American mess had to beg to be given a chance to hold his contract.

This happened just before Christmas and as the Americans were being paid off for the first time in three months, they persuaded their commander to let them all go to Rome and Naples and gorge themselves.

There they engaged in veritable food orgies. They bought candy and nuts and cake by five-pound lots, retiring to their rooms to eat after taking regular restaurant meals. Some of the men were reported to have eaten six meals a day.

One of the features of the reception given at Rome by Ambassador Thos. Nelson Page and Mrs. Page at the Palazzo del Drago to the young men, was a spread of cake and candy weighing down several tables. Although all present ate freely from the tables, their appetites seemed merely to have been whetted, for they were later found standing out in front of candy stores eating more cake and candy.

Several started to mass at St. Peter's but were unable to get any farther than a restaurant facing the church.
